

NOT SATISFIED

Now is the time, now is the time to open the doors, open the doors.

Opportunity comes, opportunity comes to the children of God, the children of God.

We can't walk alone, won't walk alone and we'll never turn back, we cannot turn back

Opportunity comes, opportunity comes to the children of God, the children of God.

No, no, no. No, no, no.

We are not satisfied with this.

We're not satisfied, not satisfied with injustice and pain, injustice and pain.

But we turn off our sets, and try to block out all the suffering and pain,

And still call God's name.

Yet we want more and more, consume and then store, while the rich get more rich,

The poor get more poor

No, no, no. No, no, no.

We are not satisfied with this.
