

TO THE END

Lately I've been frustrated,
Sometimes hated what I've been through.
I have run in circles,
No way out, what could I do?

But with you everything's alright,
With you my darkness turns into light.

*Well I'm reaching out for you, and I'm holding on to you...
To the end, to the end*

Now I don't know the future,
Or the things that might happen to me.
But you are more than able,
And I trust the hands holding me.

And with you everything's alright,
With you my darkness turns into light.

*Well I'm reaching out for you, and I'm holding on to you...
To the end, to the end.*

So I'm reaching out for you, and I'm holding on to you,
To the end, to the end.
So I'm reaching out for you, and I'm holding on to you,
To the end, to the end

*Well I'm reaching out for you, and I'm holding on to you...
To the end, to the end.*
